

جامعة العين
AL AIN UNIVERSITY

AAU E-NEWSLETTER

JULY 2026 - ISSUE 172

Issued by the Public Relations and Media Office
p.relation@aau.ac.ae

Al Ain University Strengthens Its International Presence at QS Africa Forum 2026

Al Ain University (AAU) participated in the QS Africa Forum 2026 in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, where leading figures, experts, and representatives from higher education institutions gathered to exchange insights on emerging academic trends and explore future opportunities for collaboration and partnership across Africa and beyond.

The university was represented by Dr. Noor Al Deen Atatreh (Vice Chairman of the Board of Trustees), and Prof. Nazih Khaddaj Mallat (Vice President-Accreditation and Quality Assurance). Their participation reflects AAU's commitment to strengthening its presence on international higher education platforms and expanding its academic network with institutions worldwide.

During the forum, Dr. Noor Al Deen Atatreh participated in a panel discussion titled "Partnerships for Impact: Advancing Higher Education Through Collaboration". The session highlighted the importance of building effective academic partnerships to advance higher education, facilitate the exchange of knowledge and expertise, and enhance universities' capacity to create sustainable impact.

Al Ain University Concludes Its Participation in the National Service Career Fair 2026

Al Ain University concluded its participation in the National Service Career Fair 2026, held at Expo City Dubai, following several productive days of engagement with national service recruits and job seekers exploring future employment and educational opportunities after completing their national service.

The University's participation provided a valuable platform to connect directly with recruits and introduce them to a range of administrative career opportunities available across several fields, including human resources, information technology, public relations and media, among others. These opportunities are designed to match the qualifications, skills, and professional aspirations of national talent.

Visitors to the University's stand were also introduced to the wide range of study options available at Al Ain University, including accredited academic programs offered across eight diverse colleges. University representatives provided information on admission requirements, available majors, and academic pathways that help students develop their skills and prepare for the evolving needs of the labor market.

During the exhibition, the University was honored to welcome His Excellency Lieutenant General Ibrahim Nasser Al Alawi, Undersecretary of the Ministry of Defense.

Al Ain University Participates in the Edutex Oman

Al Ain University participated in the International Exhibition of Higher Education Institutions in the Sultanate of Oman, alongside a number of universities and academic institutions, to introduce its academic programs and majors and engage with students interested in pursuing higher education.

The University's stand showcased a range of academic programs offered across different levels of study. Visitors were also provided with information and guidance on available educational opportunities and admission requirements.

During the exhibition, Al Ain University was honored to welcome Her Highness Sayyida Dr. Mona bint Fahd Al Said to its stand, where she learned more about the University's participation, academic programs, and diverse educational opportunities.

H.E. Sheikh Nahyan bin Mubarak Honors AAU's Representatives at the Closing Ceremony of the “National Identity Pioneers” Program

His Excellency Sheikh Nahyan bin Mubarak Al Nahyan, Minister of Tolerance and Coexistence and Chairman of Sandoq Al Watan, honored Al Ain University representatives who participated in the “National Identity Pioneers” summer program. The honorees were Dr. Rania Abdullah, Director of the Communication and Media Program; Mr. Yazan Al Ahmad, Director of the Innovation and Entrepreneurship Center; and Ms. Moza Al Mansoori, Student Activities Supervisor at the Deanship of Student Affairs.

The recognition acknowledged their efforts in training students, coordinating the program, and promoting national

Arduino Innovators Workshop Enhances Engineering Students' Practical and Creative Skills

The College of Engineering at Abu Dhabi Campus, organized the “Arduino Innovators Workshop,” presented by Eng. Yaman Albadawi. The workshop offered students from various engineering disciplines an interactive, hands-on learning experience in Arduino programming, practical circuit design, and electronics. Participants were introduced to the Arduino Toolkit and Arduino IDE and applied their knowledge through a series of mini projects designed to enhance their technical and practical skills.

The workshop aimed to provide students with the knowledge and experience required to develop their own Arduino-based projects while encouraging creativity, innovation, and problem-solving in the field of engineering.

Pharmacy & Nutrition Career Day Supports Students and Alumni Career Readiness

The College of Pharmacy, Abu Dhabi Campus, successfully organized the Pharmacy & Nutrition Career Day, bringing together students, graduates, alumni, healthcare professionals, and industry representatives to explore career opportunities and professional development pathways in the healthcare and pharmaceutical sectors.

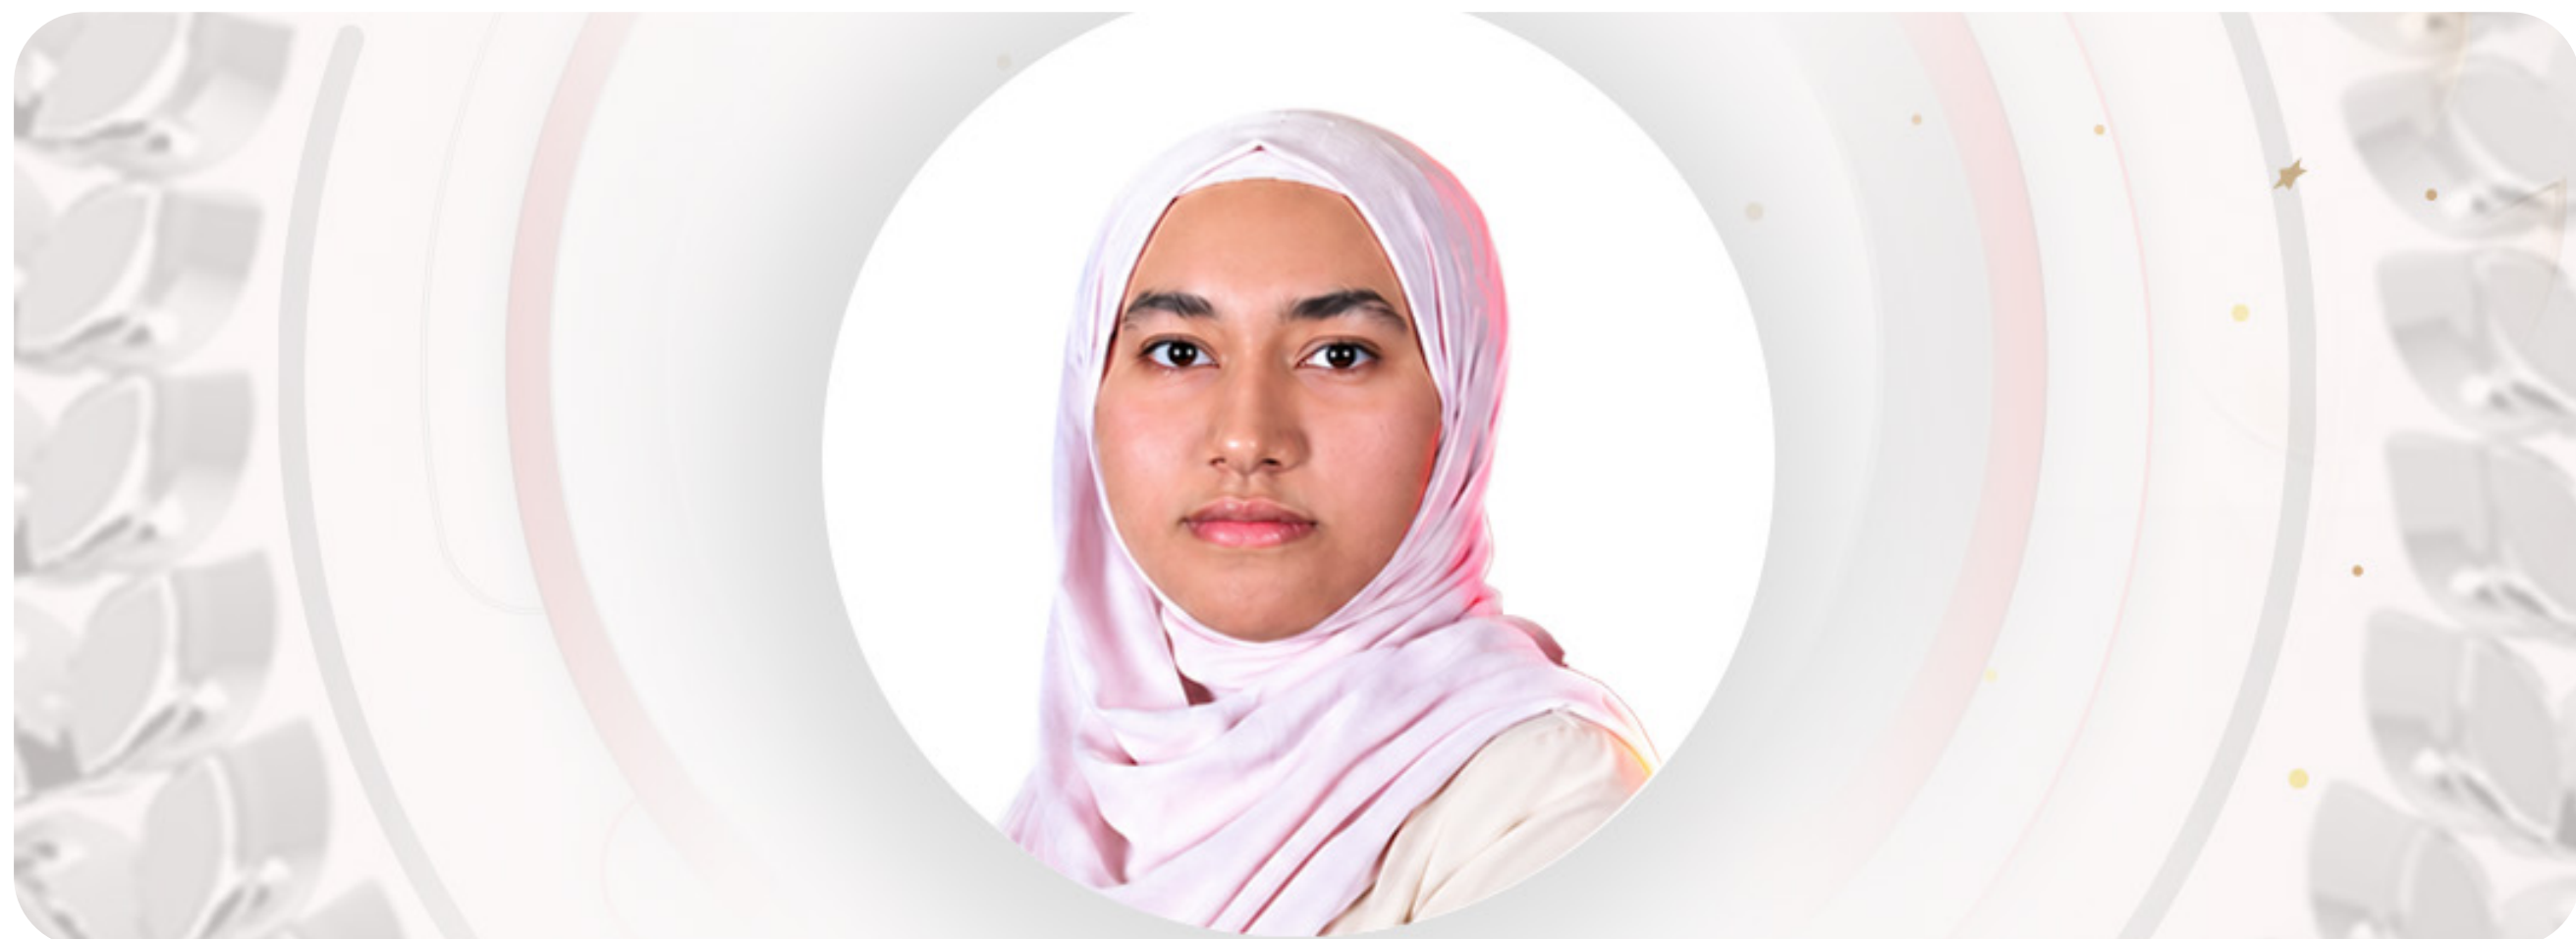

A friendly gathering bringing together Pharmacy and Nutrition alumni

The College of Pharmacy at Al Ain University organized the AAU Pharmacy Alumni Dinner 2026 at the University’s Abu Dhabi Campus, bringing together pharmacy alumni, faculty members, and university representatives for an evening dedicated to networking, reconnection, and celebrating alumni achievements.

Outstanding Participation by Civil Engineering Students in the Wooden Bridge Competition

Baraa Abdul Qader, a student from the College of Engineering at Al Ain University, has achieved a remarkable milestone by receiving the University Student Award for the Highest Volunteering Participation as part of the 23rd Sharjah Award for Voluntary Work 2025. The recognition honours her active involvement and continued contributions to volunteering and community service.